SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA TRIBAL BAR ASSOCIATION
APPLICATION FOR ADMISSION

To appear before the Intertribal Court of Southern California, an attorney must be admitted to the Southern California Tribal Bar Association.

Eligibility and Application Requirements

To be eligible for admission to the Southern California Tribal Bar Association, an attorney must:

- Be a member in good standing of any state or tribal bar with no disciplinary proceedings pending
- Conform to the standards of conduct promulgated by the American Bar Association in the performance of their professional duties
- Be knowledgeable of applicable federal, state, and tribal law as well as the Intertribal Court of Southern California Code of Civil Procedure and Rules of Court
- Be of high moral character as determined by the Chief Judge of the Intertribal Court of Southern California
- Consent to review of their attorney's fees for reasonableness by the Chief Judge of the Intertribal Court of Southern California
- Understand that should they be found in contempt of court by a judge of the Intertribal Court of Southern California, the judge may levy a fine of up to $500.00 per incident and failure to pay the fine within 30 calendar days of issuance will disqualify the attorney from membership in the Southern California Tribal Bar Association

An attorney seeking admission to the Southern California Tribal Bar Association must submit:

- A completed application for admission
- An application fee of $200.00*
- Proof of membership in any state or tribal bar

* This fee is subject to reduction or waiver in accordance with the Intertribal Court of Southern California Fee Schedule.
